In Memoriam

Paul A. O'Brien

Mr. O'Brien was head of the English department at West Roxbury High for many years until he was called upon to go to Boston Latin School in 1993 to fill that position. We have missed him and have felt the loss of his perennial optimism and his willingness to help any member of the Westie community in need of assistance or encouragement.

A retired Marine Corps master gunnery sergeant, Mr. O'Brien was a frequent participant in Westie's NJROTC events and field trips. He organized the annual spelling bees and supported all of West Roxbury High School's academic programs. Mr. O'Brien lived by the U.S. Marine Corps motto semper fidelis. He was always faithful in all aspects of his professional, personal and military life.

"To name a man blessed was to declare him .... an exemplar" Mr. Paul O'Brien — a role model for colleagues and students alike.

Get Well Soon!

Paul Cummings

We never thought we'd have to spend our senior year without the daily joys of having our dean of discipline snatch our hats off of our heads. But fate had serious surgery in store for Mr. Cummings, and we've had to do without him this year.

We're happy that his post-operative prognosis is very hopeful, but we're sad that we won't be enjoying his incessant joking around the corridors this year. Who would've "thunk" it? We actually miss the slings and arrows of his off-beat sense of humor.

Mr. Cummings, GET WELL SOON! We miss you!

In Memoriam

Omar Terrell Williams

1977 - 1994

On November 24, 1994 West Roxbury High School was deprived of a well-loved and respected member of the senior class. A tragic automobile accident shortened the life of an upstanding young man who was a credit to his family, his community, his church and his school.

While Omar Williams, known to his family and friends as Oddie, was a role model to his young black brothers, he named as his personal role models both Martin Luther King and Malcolm X. His ambition was to become a lawyer, but his hopes and dreams for his future also included becoming a great songwriter, actor, filmmaker, recording artist and playwright. Omar enjoyed his hobbies of songwriting and singing. He admired the work of Teddy Riley, Babyface, Aaron Hall and the Isley Brothers.

For the Westie 1995 yearbook, Omar named Ken, Ratskin, Mello, Indra, Dolores, Tasha, and Jon as his best friends. One of his best memories of Westie, Omar said, was Mr. Capuano's class in freshman year when everyone cracked jokes on each other. Omar said he wanted to thank his teachers Mrs. Lewis, Mr. Capuano, Ms. Smith, Mr. Whitehead, Ms. Sisco, and Mr. Sprissler.
